1. Full-time Master's studies

In full-time second-cycle studies, one foreign language is required for two semesters, 30 hours per semester.

Students who have completed their Bachelor's degree and have confirmed their willingness to study at the next level can sign up for foreign language courses.

When registering for language classes, the order of applications is important. Therefore, students who register for language courses early will have a greater choice of dates.

After registering for a foreign language course, it is mandatory to link (assign) this subject in the USOSweb system to the appropriate stage of study. The language course should be again linked to the appropriate stage of studies also after the start of the second semester of study.

2. Part-time Master's studies

Part-time second-cycle studies require taking one foreign language course for two semesters, 18 hours per semester.

Students who have completed their Bachelor's degree and have confirmed their willingness to study at the next level can sign up for foreign language courses.

Part-time students do not have the opportunity to choose the date of the language group. Language classes for specific fields of study have a time and day specified in consultation with the Teaching Department.

- Fixed date of language classes: Sunday 10:30-13:00
Course code: CJ-N2-1/1-ENG.B2, CJ-N2-1/1-ENG.C1
